Waupun High School, Waupun, Wisconsin

Foreword . . .

"When we have paced the length of the beach it is pleasant and not unprofitable to retrace our steps, and recall the whole mood and occupation of the mind during the former passage.

Our tracks being all discernible will guide us with an observing consciousness through every unconscious wandering of thought and fancy.

Here we trod along the brink of a fresh-water brooklet which flows across the beach, becoming shallower and more shallow, till at last it sinks into the sand and perishes in the effort to bear its little tribute to the main.

Here some vagary appears to have bewildered us; for our tracks go round and round and are confusedly intermingled, as if we had found a labyrinth upon the level beach.

And here amid our idle pastime, we sat down upon almost the only stone that breaks the surface of the sand, and were lost in an unlooked-for and overpowering conception of the majesty and awfulness of the great deep.

Thus, by tracking our footprints in the sand, we track our own nature in its wayward course, and steal a glance upon it when it never dreams of being so observed. Such glances always make us wiser."

--Nathaniel Hawthorne.

Seniors

MARY ALBERT

She makes an impression like a new piece of carbon paper.

CYNTHIA ARPKE

If you can't see me you can hear me.

ROMONA ATTENBERGER

Sharp with wit...no matter where, she'll always fit.

ALTON ASMUS

It's not a "Toni", it's natural.

MARY BARKLEY

She's none the least important 'cause she isn't very tall. I think you'll also find that sticks of dynamite are small.

HERBERT BEEKMAN

They say he is bashful, but you never can tell.

BRUCE BELSMA

Football man, track man, last but not least--a lady's man.

SHARON BELLING

She's very exact, she's very precise; she works awfully hard and is awfully nice.

RONALD BENNETT

Wheaties have done a lot for me.

LOUISE BREWER

Every girl has her devilish moments.

Here we spent four profitable years.

JUDY BRUESCH

Her heart is like a moon, there's always a man in it.

BETTY BRUINS

Friendly toward all; with manner sweet. The kind of girl you like to meet.

GARDIE DALTON

She's light headed, very light headed, in fact--she's a blonde.

AUREEN BUTEYN

s not what you do that's wrong; it's what you're ought at.

DONALD DeMOTTS

Is this blonde hair I see on my shoulder?

KATHLEEN DERKSEN

From her presence showers a reign of melody.

KATHRYN EGGERS

The stars smiled down and gave their sparkle to her eyes.

RONALD DeVRIES

It's better to sleep in class than waste a perfectly good night.

ARTHUR EHLERT

Do I seem shy, slightly?
Well you're mistaken, slightly!

THOMAS ELLMANN

Rosy cheeks, coat of tan, bulging muscles--what a man!

Each day brought learning and growing.

NANCY FOLZMAN

A giggle here, a giggle there, she just giggles everywhere.

HAL FRERIKS

Men of few words are the best ones.

DENNIS GERRITSON

The type of woman I like is the type that's with me at the moment.

BARBARA GERRETSON

She runs here, and rushes there, and sometimes even stops for air.

JANICE GOULD

Precise and definite in her way--this will reward her well someday.

ALTON GREENFIELD

All great men are dead and I'm not feeling so well myself.

KENNETH HACKBARTH

If I can't sleep nights, I'll sleep in the daytime.

NANCY GREENFIELD

Quiet and unassuming, but always on the job.

LINDA HARNESS

Ever faithful, ever true, to the task she has to do.

WILLIAM HEERINGA

Why hurry?

Amid teenage thoughts of fun and fancy,

MILTON HENNIG

You girls who to the cave-men bow, have hope, for here is one now.

BETTY HESSELINK

Be a live wire and you won't get stepped on.

CAROL HOFFMAN

A girl who blushes is better than one who turns pale.

CAROL HOMAN

Give me those dark eyes' to build a dream on.

HARLAN HOPP

Women? I never heard of them. What are they like?

GRETCHEN HULL

A winning way, a pleasant smile, dressed so neat, quite in style.

THOMAS KAMINSKI

Curse the man who invented lipstick.

LORNIE INDERMUEHLE

Canned and frozen juices may be popular, but we men like to squeeze our own tomatoes.

WILLIAM KAMP

Full of fun and mischief too, doing things he shouldn't do.

KENNETH KASTEIN

Good with the good and bad with the bad.

we learned the importance of the future.

JANICE KEMINK

Happy go lucky, fair and free, nothing there is that bothers me.

JUDY KEMPFER

Give me a June night, moonlight and FOOD.

KATHLEEN KINDSCHUH

A quiet pleasant manner wins many friends.

RICHARD KOTTNITZ

He had no time for girls or fame, a mere diploma was his aim.

JOYCE KUIK

Her quietness is just a front.

MARY LANDAAL

Mary usually acts quiet, but when you know her, she's a riot.

BETSY LANGE

A modest girl never pursues a man nor does a mousetrap pursue a mouse.

DONNA LEHMAN

With her gay laugh or smile some lad's life is made worth-while.

JOSEPH KLUZ

I was almost killed once when a train of thought went through my mind.

RONALD LANDAAL

What a pity to be born a rascal and handicapped with a conscience!

We saw the infancy of the space age.

LARRY LEMMENES

He is what you would call a truly faithful fellow.

MARY LEMMENES

I'm from a small town, but I've got big ideas.

AUDREY LEVEY

She's never satisfied with anything short of perfection.

MARY LONG

Today I love you--but tomorrow I may see another.

GAYE LONGUA

She enters everything with zeal and zest, and ranks in knowledge with the best.

BETTE LUEDTKE

She's too agreeable to make an enemy.

KAREN MARKOFSKI

Quiet, efficient, with a friendly smile.

IRIS McCONNELL

She's true to one--one at a time.

NANCIE MARTIN

With a smile, giggle, and rubbing of eyes, Nancie tells how that night time flies.

GERALD MEYER

He smiled and quietly said,
"Don't rush me girls."

We found that even TV must be truthful.

PATRICIA MOLTER

My mother told me there would be moments like this.

JOHN NYHUIS

A man history forgot to mention.

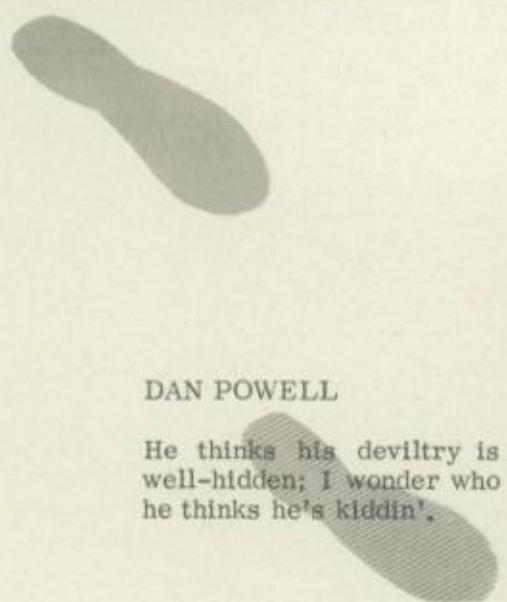

MARY PETERS

Few do what they are supposed to do; she does.

MARGARET OECHSNER

O my tongue, be silent.

DAN POWELL

He thinks his deviltry is well-hidden; I wonder who he thinks he's kiddin'.

WILLIAM PRIEBE

An athlete, a student, and every bit a man; gets all the joy from life he can.

MARILYN REDEKER

Her manner is quiet, but don't judge her by it.

WILLARD RENS

You guys look back at your good times, but I look forward to mine.

PETER RICHTER

My first love--"Budda."

We saw the reign of rock n roll.

JOAN ROSENBERG

I like to hear jokes, but more than that I like to tell 'em.

MILTON SCHEARS

I may be famous, it is true--'cause Truman was a farmer too.

BEVERLY SCHMITZ

One way to get ahead and stay ahead is to use your head.

BONNIE SCHOUTEN

A country lass with an honest air, willing to do and willing to share.

BRIAN SCHOUTEN

I never worry, I never fret. What I can't remember, I just forget.

GERRY SEEMAN

I'm all right, it's the world around me.

JAMES SPANBAUER

You can tell what kind of wheels are in his head by the spokes that come out of his mouth.

JAMES SHAW

I'll argue though the point be small, you can't let the teachers say it all.

SUE STEPHENSON

She never wears a brow of care, but always has plenty of smiles to spare.

WILLIAM STRINGHAM

I came, I bluffed, I graduated.

American-made cars came in new, compact styles.

ROBERT SWANSON

Attention Waupun co-eds or later you'll rue it, here's God's gift to women, and you never knew it.

MARY TEBEEST

Why hurry? Why worry?
The world goes on just the same.

RONALD VANDE ZANDE

What care I for work, worry, or trouble.

MARGUERITE TONN

I may be silly but ain't
I fun?

JANICE VAN EGTERN

In school a quiet lass she seems to be--but who knows if it's true when she's free.

BONNIE VAN HIERDEN

She has no heart--he has
it.

SHARON VAN LOO

Sometimes sad, sometimes glad, sometimes mischievous, but never bad.

JEANNIE VAN HIERDEN

She can't be as quiet as she looks.

ARLYN VANT HOFF

You'll never know how good I've been.

JUDITH VERHAGE

Sometimes livelier than her mother thinks.

We cheered major-league baseball in Milwaukee.

NORMA VIS

A gentle heart full of much thought for others.

BETTY VISSER

High school days have their delights; but they can't compare with high school nights.

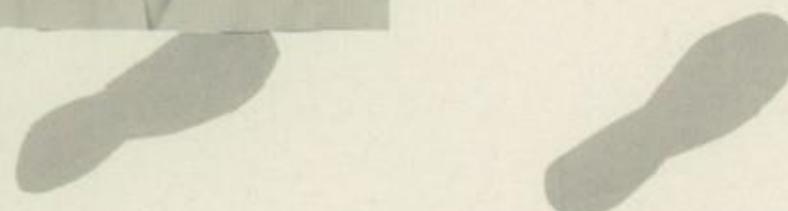

MARNIE VOELTNER

To live and love is happiness.

JUDY VOELKER

An ingenuous gal who is always a pal.

DAVID WEBER

The harder I try the gooder to be, the worser I am.

DONNA WEBER

Patterned after an angel, but someone slipped with the scissors.

DEAN WICKMAN

Why wasn't I born rich instead of handsome.

ROBERT WHITING

I have a car, it's not so new, just show me a road I can't go through.

JUDY WILSON

She's been with us only a year, just time to get acquainted here.

MARNE WILSON

I never trouble trouble, 'til trouble troubles me.

We sensed approaching adult responsibilities.

ED WOJAHN

he would say more we ould know more.

TERRY ZAMZOW

I know a lot--I just can't think of it.

VICTOR VOLKMAN

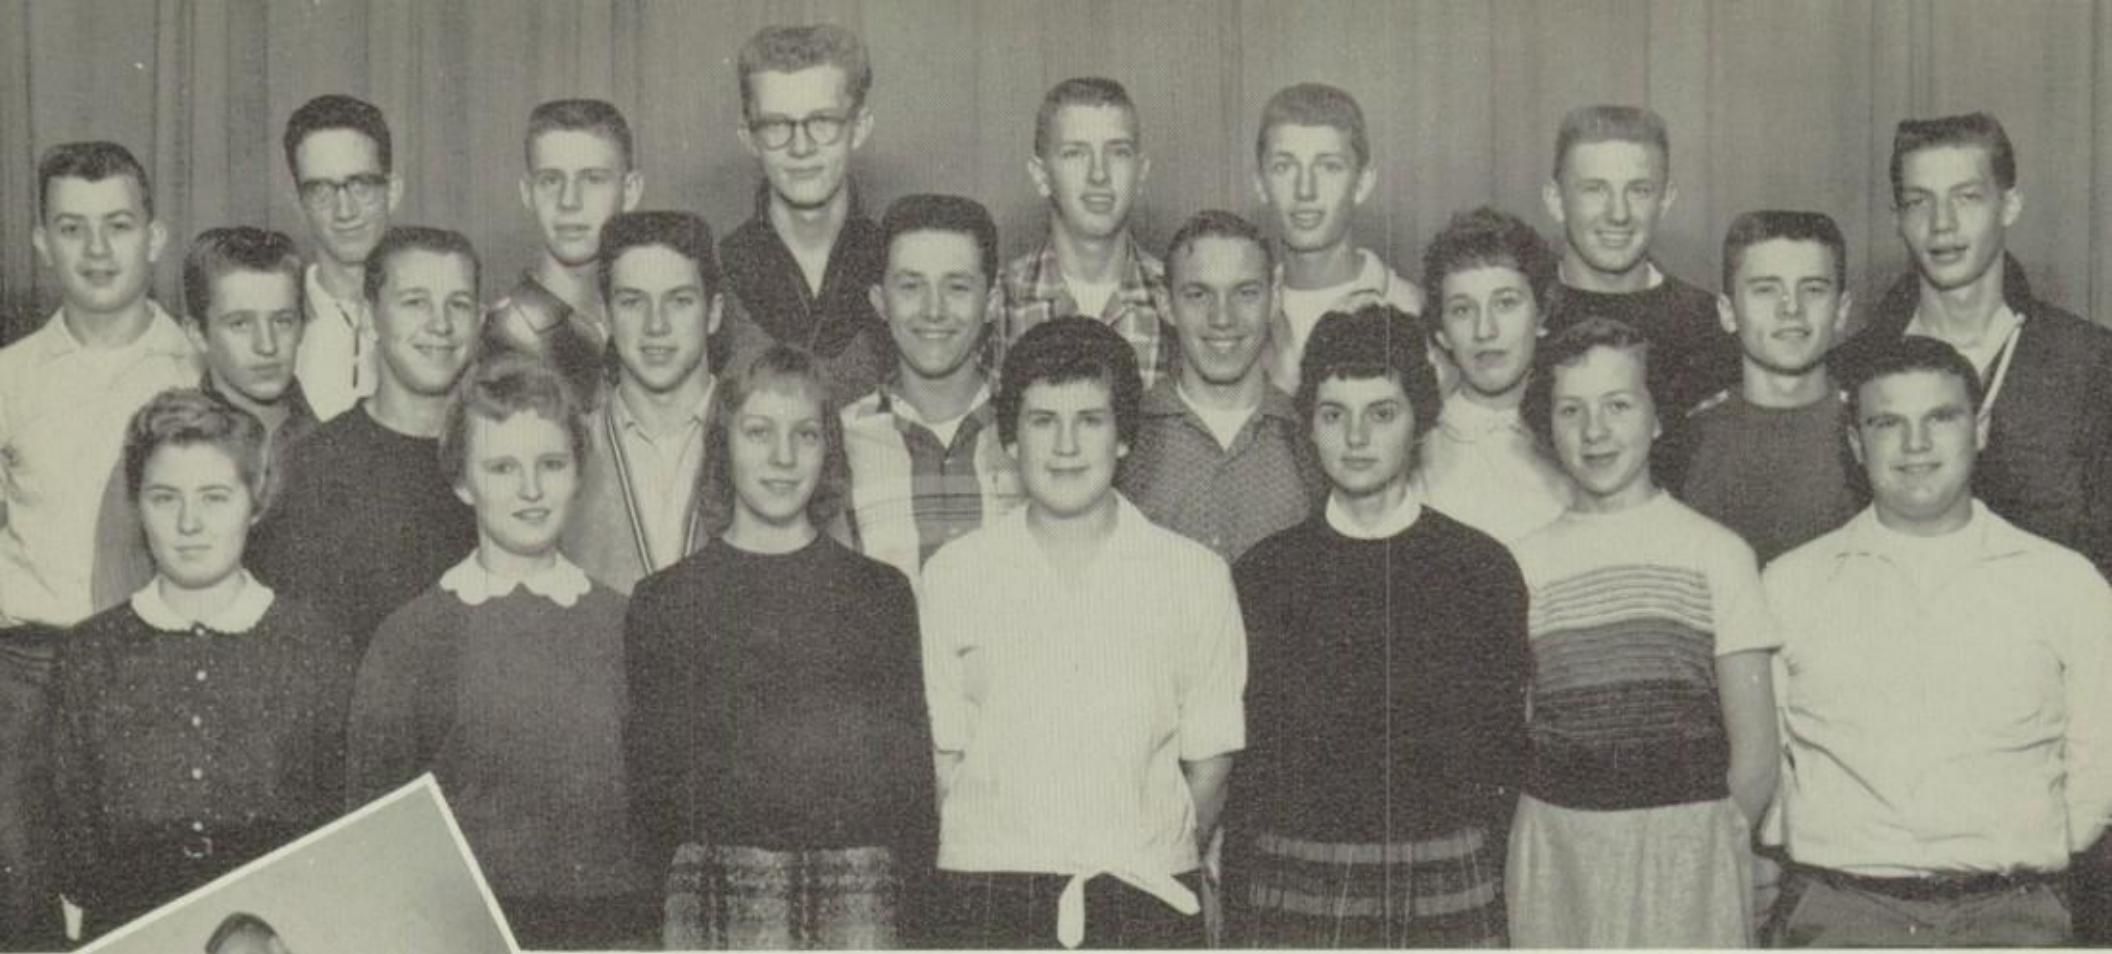

In Memoriam

We, the Seniors of 1960, pause for a moment in loving memory of our classmate and friend, Victor Volkman, who met accidental death on July 12, 1959.

Here we experienced joy - and sorrow.

Senior Band

OFFICERS: T. Corrigan, J. Rosenberg, J. Nyhuis, Mr. Hansen, M. Quick, C. Homan, J. Hallock, Front; D. Wessels, N. Rens.

The senior band is composed of 77 members under the direction of Mr. Hansen. The group meets during the first period of each day. This year the band again presented the annual winter concert and it took part in most of the Homecoming activities. At the music festival held in Berlin, May 14, the band participated in Class A concerts, sight reading, and marching contests. Last fall our band was invited to participate in the annual Band Day on the University campus in Madison. Due to unfavorable weather, the parade of bands was cancelled, but the students had the fun of seeing the Wisconsin football team in action.

Band members sold candy to raise money for a trip in the spring. Most of the members competed in the Solo and Ensemble Day in Berlin on April 2. Waupun has enjoyed a record of high ratings for many years in these contests. Our pep assemblies were enlivened by a 40-piece Pep band throughout the year. Our 60-piece Marching band added music and color to the conference football games in the fall.

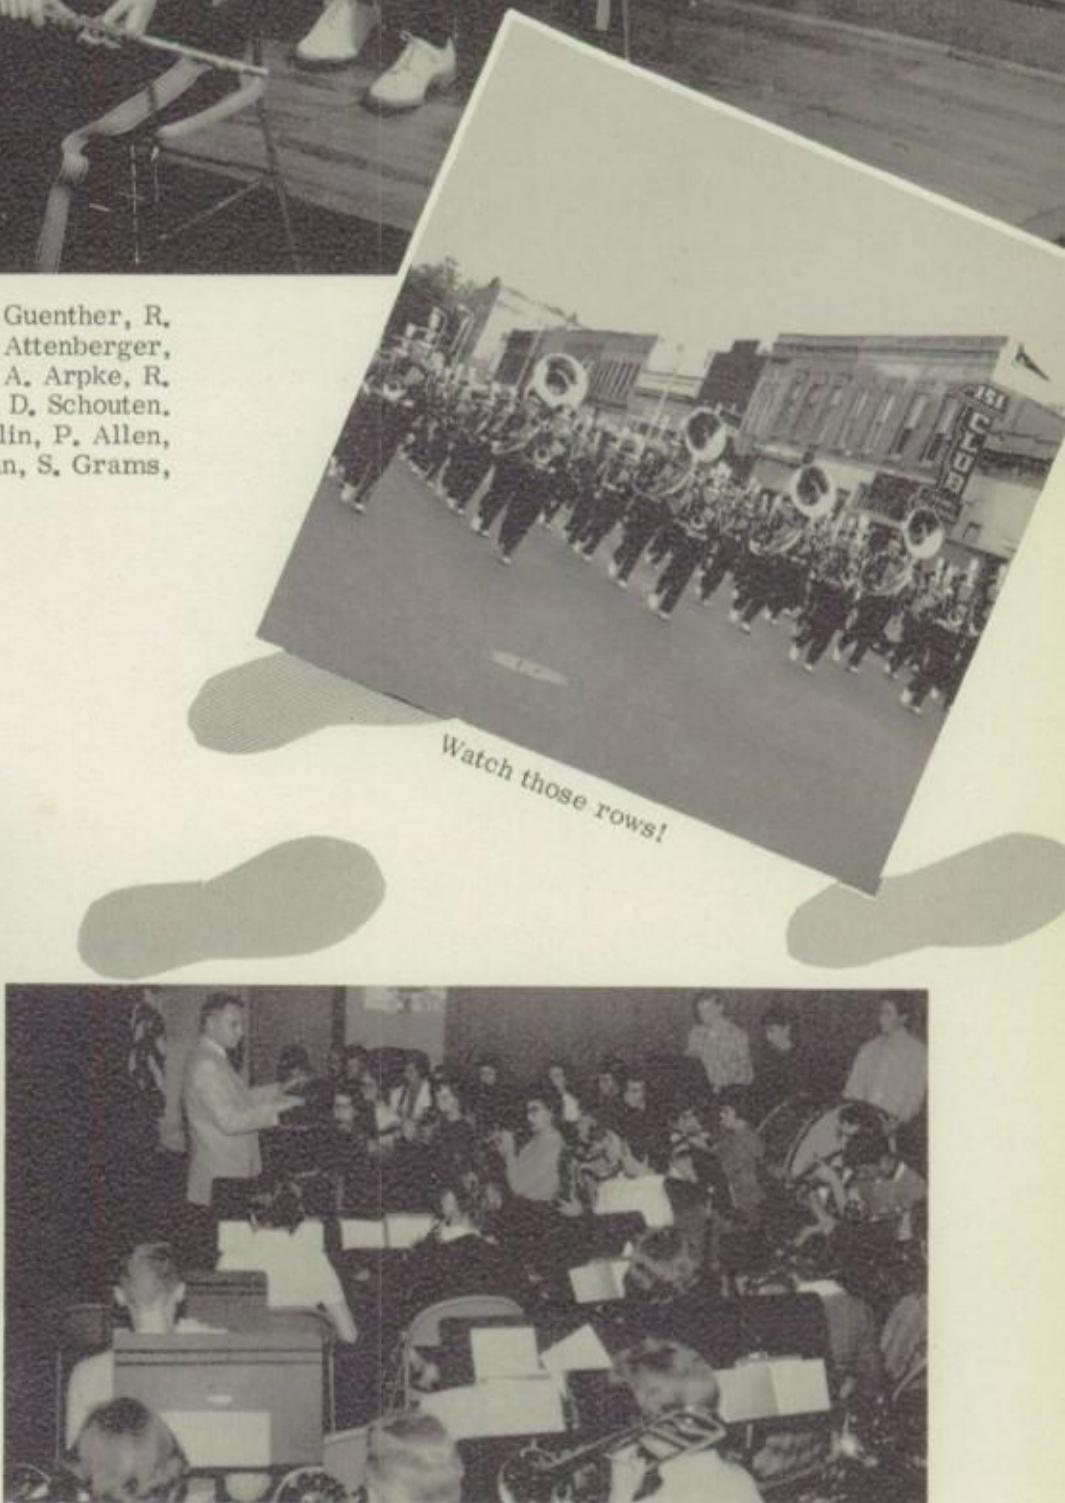

We learned to appreciate finer music.

ROW FOUR: D. Zuschke, W. Haese, J. Gadbaw, C. Staehling, B. Guenther, R. Rosenberg, R. Hendricks, R. Guenther, N. Holloway, C. Reslock, R. Attenberger, B. Hesselink. ROW THREE: G. Dalton, G. Hull, L. Our Christmas Assembly.

An ensemble rehearsal.

Ironing out the rough spots!

We sang formally and for fun.

ROW FOUR: J. Meengs, L. Radloff, M. Buteyn, J. Gould, S. Straks, J. Wilson, C. Homan. ROW THREE: J. Drummy, J. Staehling, M. Lemmenes, J. Blean, S. Stephenson. P. Molter, B. Lange.

ROW TWO: J. Mielke, R. Myers, S. Van Loo, M. Oeschner, P. Schouten, L. Kastein. ROW ONE: B. Van Hierden, S. LaMue, J. Larson.

Mixed Chorus

The forty-five members of the mixed chorus had an interesting year under the direction of Miss Ann Seibel. Jill Larson and Mardi Stelsel were new accompanists.

Rather than having the usual concert during the Christmas season, the chorus presented programs for the grade school students and various service clubs in Waupun. Two selections were presented at the Kiwanis Community Christmas Concert.

In the spring the chorus traveled to Chicago to see a musical show. Money was earned for this trip by having candy and bake sales, and chorus members sold coffee and cocoa at the football games.

One of the important musical events of the year was the spring concert. The chorus joined with the band to present the program. An operetta, H.M.S. PINAFORE, was presented. This was the first opportunity in many years for students to participate in an activity of this sort.

As in the past, the chorus took part in the East Central Wisconsin District Music Festival. Various members of the group also sang in the solo and ensemble contest of this district. Those who participated found the experience very rewarding.

Officers, STANDING: T. Ellmann, J. Staehling, J. Meengs, B. Visser, P. Molter, S. Michael, Miss Seibel. SEATED: M. Stelsel, J. Larson.

Long rehearsals were worthwhile.

Waubun

Our book of memories, the WAUBUN, is the responsibility of the senior class. However, the photography is the work of both senior and under-classmen laboring under Mr. Holmes who has developed a capable dark-room crew.

Editor Mary Peters has had the help of Sheryl Rhode, junior editor, who got on-the-job training that prepared her to take over the editorship of the 1961 yearbook. Editors are elected by their classmates at the close of the sophomore year, which gives them time to learn and to plan. Mary says the theme of this book - "retracing our footsteps" - came to her as she read a Hawthorne essay in her junior English course.

The popular WAUBUNETTE has been guided this year by new advisors - Miss Lewke, business staff, and Miss Buehrens, editorial staff. The latter, with Marsha Morrissey as editor, has recorded the student life from the classroom to the playing fields, and from club meetings to the social scene. With Gaye Longua as business manager, the paper has appeared at three-week intervals, and an average of 350 students have bought copies at five cents each.

The staff is drawn from all of the high school classes. Every student who is interested in writing is given the chance to try an assignment in the fall.

The purpose of the F.T.A. is to recruit promising juniors and seniors into the teaching profession. The students applied their knowledge through practical experience in the elementary schools. The student teachers worked with absentees and made bulletin board displays. Their advisor is Mrs. Luck. Members meet once a month to see films about the teaching profession.

The Future Homemakers of America had 30 members who either have been or are now in the home economics program. The outstanding projects of the F.H.A. included making stuffed animals for children in an orphanage and giving a chili supper for the public. The advisors are Miss Haerterich and Mrs. Biel. Ramona Attenberger, a member of the club, held the office of president in the state organization the past year.

The faculty selects nine junior boys in the fall, each to be a junior member of the Rotary for one month. During his month, the boy attends the Rotary luncheons. At the first meeting of the next month, he introduces the new junior member. The club program on the last Tuesday of the school year is presented by the nine Junior Rotarians.

Members of the Radio club, organized this year for the purpose of training students to become radio operators, learned radio theory and the morse code. The group met Thursdays under the leadership of Mr. Richardson. The club hopes to set up a radio station in Waupun eventually. The group sponsored school dances to earn money for guest speakers and for visits to radio stations.

Forensic competition includes four-minute talks, extemporaneous speaking, extemporaneous and interpretative reading, original and non-original oratory, and humorous and dramatic declamations. Students are coached by Mr. Casper, Mr. Howe, Mrs. Kastein, Mrs. Luck, Mrs. Niles, Miss Vaughan, and Miss Buehrens. Winners of the local contest enter the Little Ten freshman-sophomore contest, the Little Ten conference meet, the district meet, and the state finale.

"That the federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions" was the proposition debated this year. Seventeen Waupun students, coached by Mr. Casper, chairman of speech activities, met almost every night after school for several months. The A and B teams attended five invitational meets besides the Little Ten tournament which was held in Ripon this year. The A team won second place at the Ripon event and went to Preble High School for the district tournament.

In a triangular meet with Horicon and Mayville, Waupun placed second; in a meet with Ripon and Mayville, Waupun again took second honors. In one invitational, Waupun placed ninth among twelve competing schools; in another, the team was twelfth among fourteen contenders. In the conference meet, Waupun had eighth place among the ten schools represented. Bruce Belsma represented Waupun at the sectional meet in Ripon where he won first honors in the pole vault. Terry Zamzow placed third in the 100-yard dash in the same meet.

Prom - 1959

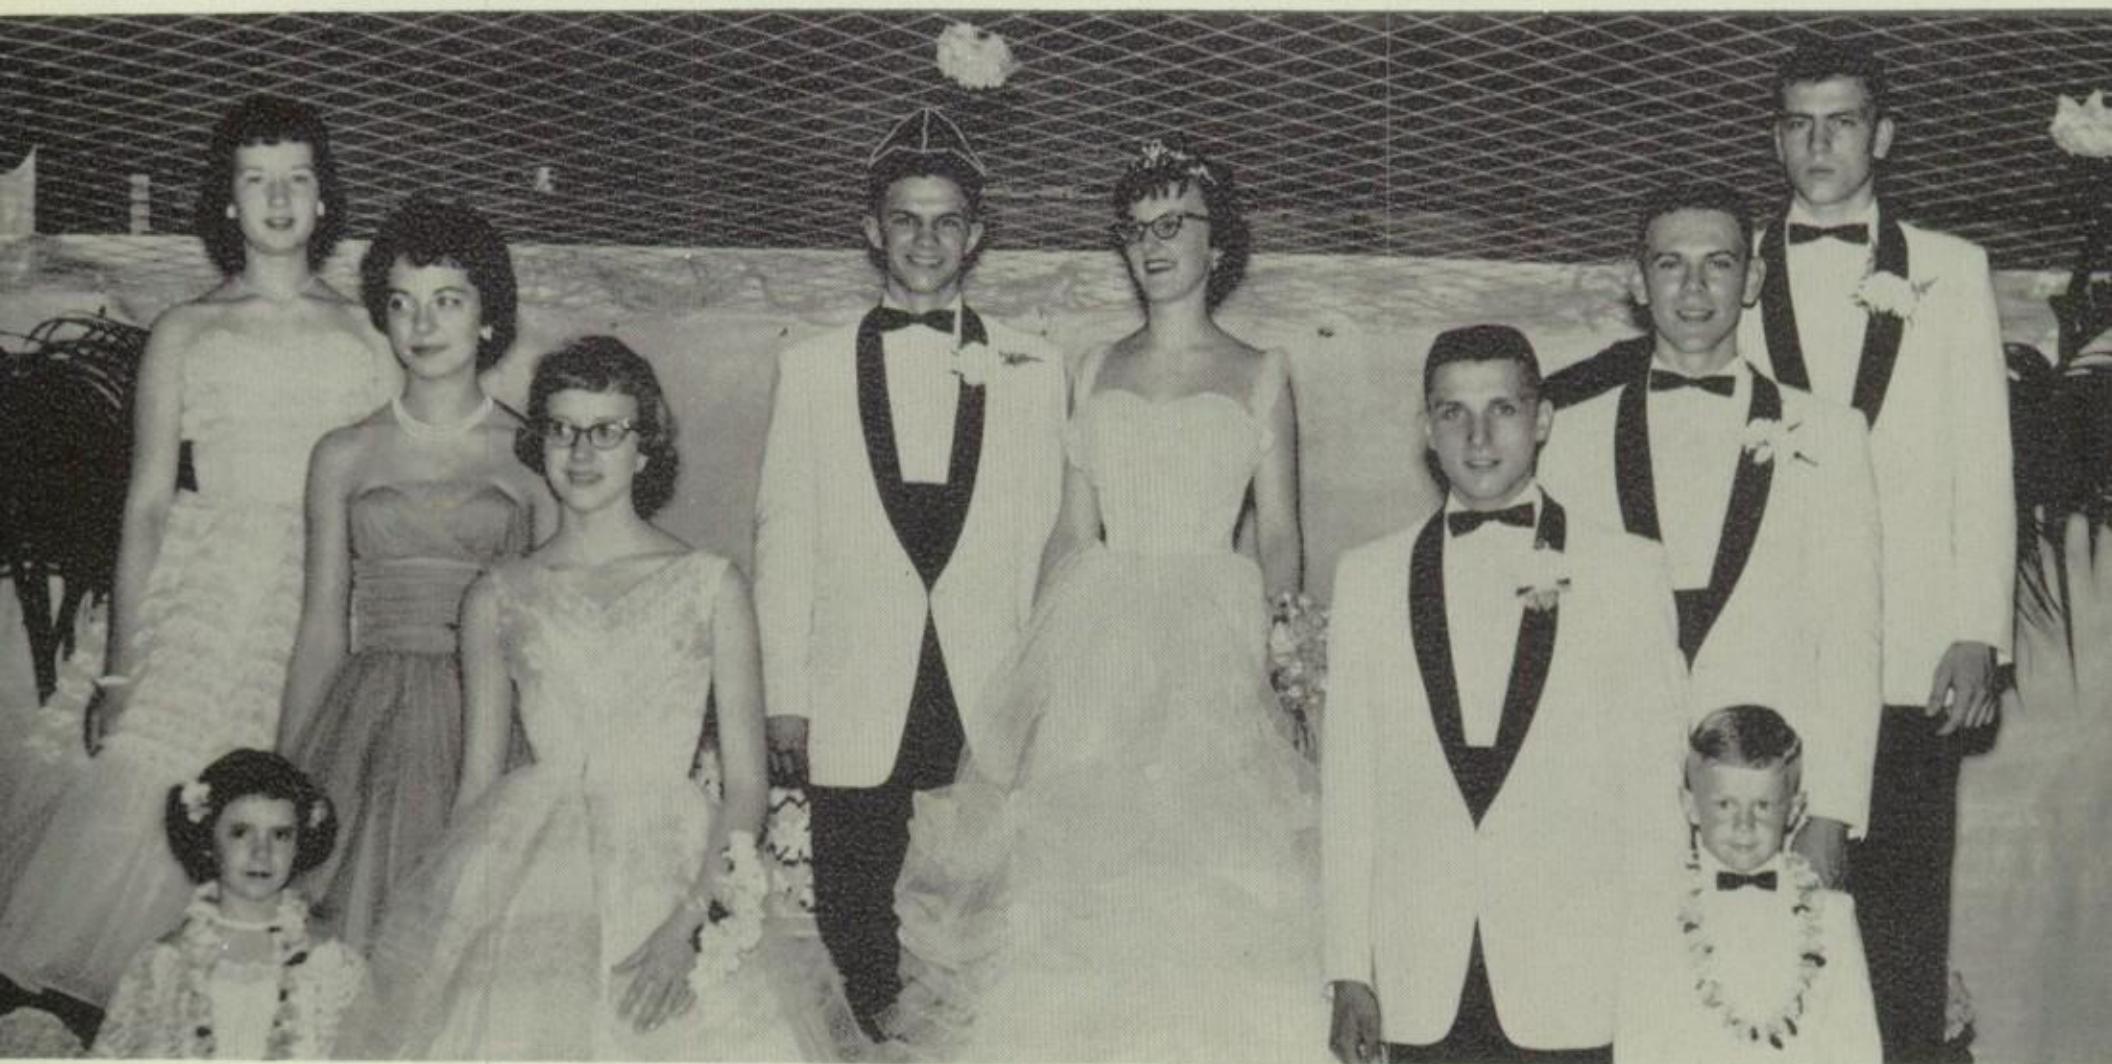

KING DEAN WICKMAN and QUEEN SUE STEPHENSON

A grass hut and the mountain, Bali Hai, emphasized the South Pacific theme of the 1959 junior prom. A net canopy, decorated with flowers, hung from the gym ceiling. The hut served as the refreshment center.

Sue Stephenson and Dean Wichman were our royalty for the evening. Bob Larson's orchestra provided music for dancing from nine to one. Then we were off to the hotel and the country club where our local service clubs were sponsoring a post-prom party. The South Pacific theme had been used in decorations for both places. The hard work of the juniors was rewarded by the large attendance and by the good time everyone had.

H. M. S. PINAFORÉ, the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, was under the direction of the vocal music instructors, Miss Siebel and Miss Novak, assisted in the dance routines by Mrs. Moroni, and in the dramatic sequences by Mr. Howe. Mr. Howe also handled the staging. The principal roles were sung by the following:

Josephine	Sue Micheals
Sir Joseph	Randy Rosenberg
Captain Corcoran	Mark Lemmenes
Buttercup	Carol Homan
	Sue Stephenson
Cousin Hebe	Betty Visser
	Linda Harness
Ralph	John Meengs
Dick Deadeye	Tom Ellmann
Carpenter's Mate	Ron Vande Zande
Boatswain	Lon Radloff

The complete cast included about thirty students, sailors and feminine relatives of Sir Joseph who served as the chorus. This is the first time in 12 years that such an ambitious musical show has been staged at Waupun High.

Trampoline Club

Jackknife front-drop.

A newcomer to our group of extracurricular activities, the Trampoline club, under the direction of Mrs. Moroni, prepared several public exhibitions of skill on this fascinating apparatus. There are sixteen members. Body flips, forward and backward somersaults, and skipping rope are some of the feats performed on the springy canvas. The club presented a program at the half time of the Columbus basketball game here February 19. Another appearance was made at the variety show sponsored in the spring by the Kiwanis and College clubs.

More bounce to the ounce!

It's harder this way.

Rope jumping.

A new experience! O-o-o, what fun!

"Lil" Abner (Don DeMotts) and Daisy Mae (Sharon Straks)

Sadie Hawkins

Cheers were thunderous when Daisy Mae finally caught "Lil" Abner, who was Don DeMotts, dressed in patched overalls. Sharon Straks took the part of Daisy Mae. After Daisy Mae's victorious catch, the Dog Patch couple was joined in "howling wedlock" by Marryin' Sam, played by Tom Ellmann.

Straw hats and pipes did not hinder the fun of the other couples at the party. They participated in volleyball and shuffleboard games until it was their turn to meet Marryin' Sam.

Other activities of the evening included a cake-walk and dancing. Judy Kempfer and Pete Richter received a prize for being the "best-dressed" couple.

The cake-walk.

I now pronounce you..."

Junior Band

The Junior Band included forty-two seventh graders and thirty eighth graders at the end of first semester. Under the direction of Mr. Hansen, the band meets three periods a week for group practicing. In addition to the regular practice period, each member has one individual lesson a week, also under the direction of Mr. Hansen. This year the members selected as their officers:

President	Barbara Buchholz
Vice President	Jill Larson
Treasurer	David Glascoff
Managers	Richard Maastricht

Bill Shaw

Janice Vande Zande was selected drum major on the basis of her proven abilities. Noreen Redeker, Jill Larson, Ruth VanHaren, and Barbara Buchholz were selected as majorettes. The Junior Band has participated in the Homecoming parade and the Homecoming pre-game program jointly with the Senior Band. The juniors also presented the first section of the Mid-Winter Concert. From Christmas until April, forty-two solos and six ensembles were diligently practicing for the Solo-Ensemble contest held April 2. They also practiced hard for the Band Festival in which they participated. Their final appearance of the year was the Memorial Day parade.

DRUM MAJORETTES: R. VanHaren, J. Larson, J. Vande Zande, B. Buchholz, N. Redeker.

Here we found training for years ahead.
